Grimaldi Lines strengthens Livorno-Olbia and opens the new Civitavecchia-Olbia line

Following the success of its activities in the Sardinian market, Grimaldi Lines further extends its maritime connections for cargo and passengers to Sardinia by reinforcing the Livorno-Olbia line and opening the new Civitavecchia-Olbia route.

The modern ferry "Cruise Olbia" will replace the "Zeus Palace" and will add even more capacity on the daily service Livorno-Olbia thanks its capacity for 1600 passengers and 2400 linear meters of cargo intake. The "Zeus Palace" will be then dedicated to the new brand line Civitavecchia-Olbia, offering daily departures from both ports all the year round.

Thanks these new initiatives, Grimaldi Lines offers today a wide network of routes between Sardinia and Italy mainland. A part from the lines Civitavecchia-Porto Torres and Barcelona-Porto Torres, Grimaldi Lines links Sardinia also with the lines from Genoa, Livorno, Salerno, Palermo and Valencia to Cagliari.
